Celebrating the International Convention for the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women

Calendar 2010

Advancement of Women

State parties shall take in all fields, in particular in the political, social, economic and cultural fields, all appropriate measures, including legislation, to ensure the full development and advancement of women, for the purpose of guaranteeing them the exercise and enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms on a basis of equality with men.

Article 3. Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women

The Convention provides an international framework for creating equality between women and men. Throughout Africa, the Caribbean, and Latin America, women are actively advocating for their basic human rights, frequently struggling to overcome culturally enforced ideas of inferiority and official government policy. In the past few decades the number of women's civic organizations in Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean has been on the rise.
